Sanitized - Approved For Release : CIA-RDP75-00001R000300400005-6

FOIAb3b

[redacted]

GREEN BAY, WIS.
PRESS-GAZETTE
e. 40,271
S. 43,919
Front Page | Edit Page | Other Page
Date: FEB 23 1965

Editorial Paragraphs

CPYRGHT

JOSEF STALIN ROLLS OVER

A Polish spy story has taken a bizarre twist. A former Central Intelligence Agency official has challenged the CIA to release information which reportedly proves that Polish spy Michael Goleniewski really is the son of the late Russian czar.

Howling out of the boneyards of the past comes a "czar" to haunt the Kremlin and to keep history honest.

The truth truly is stranger than fiction—and that goes for those cloak and dagger TV tales.

It's enough to make Stalin roll over in his grave—if you could locate his grave.—Atlanta Times.

CPYRGHT

Sanitized - Approved For Release : CIA-RDP75-00001R000300400005-6